THE PRIMARIES.

Everybody takes an interest, and the future prevails.

Yesterday's primaries were very interesting throughout, and drew out Republican voters in full force.

The Omnibus ticket contained the names of 29 rival candidates, and the way they hustled and slashed each other along the street was very lively about noon. Of course, many of the voters were in considerable of a dilemma when they saw two friends of long standing competing for the same office, and one man who was unable to decide, flipped up a half-dollar to see where his choice lay.

The best of feeling seemed to prevail, and the workers for the various aspirants also took things very good naturedly.

The Sheriff's fight was the main one, and the Botsford, Reynolds and Ulrick workers were straining every nerve for their men. The reports of this fight passed up and down the street every half hour, and each man seemed successively in the lead.

The Legislative ticket appeared to be Logan, Bicknell and Folsom. At 4 o'clock it was generally conceded that Edwards was leading Summerfield. Tom Mackey, who had massed his forces for a red hot fight, seemed disappointed that he had no competition. The contest between Bell and Friend was reported very close all day, with Bell getting the young men's vote. There was considerable talk of "The Club" vote of 100 men, but if the club was doing any work it was doing it very quietly, and enquires regarding the purposes of the organization elicited very little information. Hawkins' fight against Morton for Public Administrator was conceded. At 5 o'clock Doane was considered ahead of Hawthorn. In the afternoon the band played some lively airs, but the music in no way interfered with politics.

The indications are that Logan, Bicknell and Folsom are the Assemblymen. Botsford appears to be leading for Sheriff. Leslie Bell for Treasurer, Helms and McCabe were running even. Edwards was largely in the lead over Summerfield, Hawkins and Morton were running even. The above is only indicated by the count up to the time the APPEAL went to press and may be materially changed when the count is finished.

The following are the returns from Empire. Up to midnight the Carson precinct was still uncounted.

McMahon's circus.

McMahon's circus tent was

erect last evening at the foot of Washington street, and many had to stand around the ring to see the performers.

The performance may be fairly

said to come fully up to promise, which is saying a good deal, as a circus is generally glib of promise.

The riding was all done bareback. The four-in-hand was particularly good.

The acrobatic did excellent

work on the carpet.

The trapeze work by the ladies

was well received.

The ground tumbling by a large number of performers was as good as has ever been seen in Virginia City.

The trick donkeys were the best ever seen here.

taken as whole, this circus exceeds in acrobats and tumblers and gives a very acceptable show.

connected with the circus is the usual variety of side-shows.

There will be a grand matinee performance commencing at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and another evening performance at 8 o'clock.

After the regular circus exhibition last evening a minstrel show

was given, to which many remained. — Enterprise.

to represent them in the Senate,

The Colored Caucus.

The colored voters held a caucus in Mr. Harris' barber shop yesterday, and after a long debate settled solidly on their ticket and voted in a body.

There will be a meeting of the lady members of the O. N. O.

club at Miss Bray's this afternoon

4:30 to make arrangements for refreshments on Friday evening.

The Executive Committee would also state that tickets for the party can be obtained at Golden's jewelry store.

The Empire counters finished counting 100 votes by 9 o'clock.

In the Carson precinct 100 ballots were not counted by 10 o'clock.

In another hour the entire great register would have been voted yesterday.

WHAT ON EARTH—is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W.
